Eagles Plan Big Event On New Year's Night

One of the most elaborate celebrations ever held here by members of the Ogden Eagles lodge will be staged New Year's afternoon and evening. During the afternoon a class of more than fifty new candidates will be initiated, with 150 Salt Lake Eagles and members of the Salt Lake degree team taking part in the degree work.

Following the initiation a party will be on the program, including luncheon and entertainment features. A band has been procured for the occasion and a parade is being planned if the weather permits.

During the evening the lodge members and their wives will attend a dance to be held in the big lodge hall, beginning at 9 o'clock. Salt Lake Eagles will be the guests of honor at the ball.

Spirit of Christmas Plea Helps Him Little

Asking that Christmas spirit be taken into consideration, attorney John Sneddon, representing John Overy, charged with having liquor in his possession, pleaded that leniency be given by the court.

Overy, who through his attorney had entered a plea of not guilty, was found to have had more than a gallon of "moonshine" whiskey in his possession, say the police. Judge Louis J. Hatcher passed sentence upon Overy, fining him $50. The fine was paid by Attorney Sneddon.

The Sense of Inferiority

A Starved Nervous System Takes the Snap Out the Otherwise Strong and Capable.

Imaginary weakness, the peculiar nervous strain that causes some men to shrink so lamentably, is merely a condition of semi-starvation. If you doubt it, let the reconstructive influence of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills drive it out of your head completely.

When the nerves have gone smash and the iron has been burned out of the blood, then is the time that the red blood cell fighter lends it all over his pale-faced rival. Rejoice! It gives you a tonic strength. You feel an increased nerve force, nerve control. No more bluffs, no halting, no hesitation. With an improved appetite, the nerves that were starved cease to cry out with pain, the red corpuscles in the blood increase enormously, there is a tinge of color to the skin and a sense of fitness from head to foot. Such is the marvelous capacity of the system to respond to the influence of Rejoice. This wonderful reconstructive and strengthening combination so intensifies the activity of the vital processes that you approach any task with a vim that is fairly astonishing.
Ask any of the clerks at the A. R. McIver Drug Co.'s two stores or any other leading drug store for a $1.00 box of Rejoice. Ask them about its wonderful effect upon a host of people they have sold it to.—Advertisement.

COMMUNICATION

Ogden, Utah, Dec. 26, 1920.

Editor Standard-Examiner:
In an editorial appearing in your issue of last Tuesday you quote one of the judges of the juvenile court of Salt Lake county in speaking of the adoption of children as saying: "The evil aggravated by reason of the fact that our district courts, which have jurisdiction of adoption matters, have no facilities for investigation, and consequently cases of adoption are handled informally and decrees entered as a matter of course upon presentation of evidence sufficient to satisfy the bare statutory requirements."

I think this is an erroneous view of judges of the district court not only the law facilities to investigate the character of persons who petition for the adoption of children, but it is their duty to do so; and I do not believe the lives of any children in this district have been wrecked by allowing adoptions to improper persons.

So far as I am concerned, it has been my privilege to have been personally acquainted with persons desiring to adopt a child, to require proof of their good character and that they are able to properly care for, rear and educate the child. Witnesses are examined separately, and not in the presence of each other, and such matters are not handled informally, and no decree is entered as a matter of course, nor "rubber stamped," but evidence is sufficient to satisfy the bare statutory requirements. On the contrary, the proof must satisfy me that the interests of the child will be promoted by the adoption. In most cases I have heard the evidence of officers of the Marine society or the Children's Aid society of this city or of some similar organization, showing that they had visited the homes of the persons seeking the adoption and investigated as to their moral character and their financial ability and fitness to rear and educate the child which they seek to adopt.

Respectfully,
A. W. AGEE

Former Ogden R. R. Man Passes Away

William J. Phelan, former resident of Ogden and well known in railroad circles, died at Green River, Wyo., last evening at 7:30 o'clock following a paralytic stroke. Mr. Phelan was 45 years old.

Up to about ten years ago he was a resident of Ogden, having been employed as a brakeman for the Union Pacific railroad. He had been conductor for the Denver & Rio Grande railroad at Green River for a number of years.

He was the son of John Phelan, late Union Pacific conductor. The family home was at Twenty-sixth street and Lincoln avenue.

The body will be brought to Ogden for burial. Funeral services will be held in St. Joseph's church, time to be announced later.

Storm Left Snow in Ogden 7 Inches Deep

Measurements taken this morning by Charles Bass, local weather observer, show that slightly less than seven inches of snow fell in Ogden and vicinity during the storm which just passed. Heavier falls are reported in the extreme northern portion of the state and in the mountains.

Fair weather may be expected today and tonight, but another storm will probably come tomorrow, according to the weather report of the United States weather bureau which reached Ogden this morning.

Yesterday's maximum temperature was 30 degrees with a minimum of 22 degrees last night. Warmer temperatures are predicted for tonight.

Use Hotel Room and Fail to Pay For It

C. J. Kasey, 23 years old, and James Gilles, 22 years old, salesmen, were arrested at the Broom hotel this morning on trespass charges. Detective Ed Butler was the arresting officer.

The young men were arrested upon complaint of the proprietor of the Broom hotel, who claimed that the men secured a key and opened a room at the hotel, which they occupied. They did not pay for the use of the room, it is said, and for this reason were arrested.
